

BISNOW ATLANTA

A DEAL WITH TEETH . . .

Good afternoon, Atlanta! Allow us to introduce ourselves. We are the original commercial real estate e-blast that started in DC five years ago and has since expanded to NYC, Chicago, Boston, Houston, Dallas and (now) Atlanta. We try to be fun, informative, picture-heavy, upbeat, and mercifully short. Please give us your feedback and suggestions: Editorial@Bisnow.com

. . . or, at least a lease with a tenant, NCDR, which provides facilities, support staff, and other non-clinical services for group dental practices. Fortunately teeth need to be cleaned and drilled even in a recession. (You might even find gold while you're in there.)

Here's Northchase Office Park in the Cumberland/Galleria submarket where Transwestern veep Rush Bradley just completed the 40k SF deal on behalf of landlord/receiver Pac Zachary of GlassRatner Management. NCDR's principal client is Kool Smiles, a national provider of children's dental care. William Wood and Furman Wood of Commercial Property Professionals repped NCDR.
